

Microfinance Masterclass

Presented by: Sarah Marino and Rebecca Parkinson

Tuesday 10 July 2012
12.00pm - 2.00pm
Actuaries Institute
Level 7 • 4 Martin Place • Sydney 2000

Come along to this interactive session and find out how Opportunity International Australia helps people out of poverty through microfinance.

How a business approach can solve the social issue of poverty • The methodology and process behind microfinance • The power of the infinite dollar (i.e. donations that are recycled for maximum value) • How communities help each other (e.g. group lending) • How to measure social impact • Current trends in microfinance.

Presenters

Sarah Marino
Donor Relations Manager
Sarah has 10 years' experience in fundraising and corporate philanthropy. Prior to joining Opportunity, she worked at Make-A-Wish Foundation. Sarah has an MBA specialising in Corporate Social Responsibility.

Rebecca Parkinson
Acting Investment Services Director
Rebecca supports the delivery and monitoring of new and existing microfinance programs. Prior to joining Opportunity, she worked as a finance professional for investment banks and large corporates.

- Places are limited so registration is essential. • A light lunch will be provided.
 - The presentation will start from 12.30pm. •
- If you wish to join this session via dial in please email events@actuaries.asn.au for further details.

Register online or via email events@actuaries.asn.au by 3 July 2012.

Find out more about Actuaries Institute events at www.actuaries.asn.au