

ATTORNEY-GENERAL

THE HON ROBERT McCLELLAND MP

Summary of Speech to the Institute of Actuaries of Australia Seminar
Flood resilience: risks, mitigation & funding solutions

Monday 16 May 2011, 9.10am

- Welcome and Acknowledgements
- Introduction – Scene Setting
 - A summary of the past disaster season and the impact of the natural disasters.
- Asking the Tough Questions
 - An overview of the political and policy context in which we are trying to build resilience.
- Risk Mitigation
 - An examination of what mitigation is and how the Government is approaching mitigation.
- Disaster Resilience
 - What is disaster resilience in the Australian context.
- Insurance
 - The importance of the insurance industry to disaster resilience and the role it can play in reducing risk of impact from disasters.
- Conclusion
 - Progressing the Government's resilience agenda.